

Top 15 Things to do in Fort Collins

New Belgium Brewery

New Belgium Brewing Company is a 100% employee-owned craft brewery located in Fort Collins, Colorado and the maker of Fat Tire Belgian Style Ale. It was opened in 1991 by Jeff Lebesch and Kim Jordan. In 2016, it produced 957,968 barrels of its various labels.[3] As of 2016, it was the fourth-largest craft brewery and eighth-largest overall brewery in the United States.

<http://www.newbelgium.com/>

Cache La Poudre River

Colorado's only designated National Wild and Scenic River provides thrilling whitewater and paddling adventures.

<https://www.visitftcollins.com/about-fort-collins/cache-la-poudre/>

Annual Flower Trial Garden

Open daily to the public, free of charge. The entire garden is planted with annuals from late May through October. The perennial trials are displayed year round across the street in front of the Center for the Arts. You are encouraged to visit and take note of the new varieties being grown and to observe and study the different growth habits, tolerances and visual characteristics of the many different varieties that have been put on display.
<http://www.flowertrials.colostate.edu/>

Horsetooth Mountain Open Space

Six and one-half miles of water beckon visitors to come out and play! Surrounded by 1,900 acres of public lands, this reservoir has it all: fishing, boating, camping, picnicking, swimming, scuba diving, rock climbing, and water skiing. Horsetooth Reservoir requires entrance and camping permits, and is open year round. It's located west of Fort Collins, Colorado, at an elevation of 5,420 feet.

<https://www.larimer.org/naturalresources/parks/horsetooth-mountain>

Odell Brewing Company

Odell Brewing offers free daily tours at 12, 1, 2, and 3pm. Online tour reservations must be made by midnight, the day before your visit. Please check in with a tap room associate 20 minutes before your tour time to ensure your reservation. There are limited walk-in spots available the day of the tour. Guests must be at least 12 years of age to go on the tour. Space is limited. Tours are approximately 30 minutes.

<http://www.odellbrewing.com/>

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery

Welcome to the Fort Collins Museum of Discovery!

We're a hands-on history and science museum, filled with interactive exhibits and fascinating artifacts that tell the stories of Northern Colorado.

<http://www.fcmod.org/>

Mountain Whitewater Descents

Gear Rentals, River Rafting & Tubing, Outdoor Activities, Tours, Boat Tours & Water Sports, More

<http://www.raftmw.com/>

Spring Canyon Park

This park has something for everyone with a skate park, tennis courts, dog park, basketball courts, baseball field complete with a covered dugout, dirt bike course, great walking trails, multiple picnic pods, a memorial to honor our much appreciated Veterans and a lot of wonderful, green grass to run and play in.

<http://www.fcgov.com/parks/water.php>

Gardens on Spring Creek

Planting the Seed to Cultivate Community

The Gardens on Spring Creek has been growing annually since opening in every way – in visitations, educational programs, and the number of gardens developed. With over 65,000 annual visitors, The Gardens is one of the largest cultural venues in northern Colorado.

<http://www.fcgov.com/gardens/>

Horse and Dragon Brewing Company

Find us open 12-6 daily at 124 Racquette Drive, Fort Collins, CO. Call us at 970-631-8038. If you visit us in the taproom, you'll realize in a moment that Horse & Dragon Brewing Company, like many craft breweries, is a family-run place. Founded by Tim & Carol Cochran, but run (and occasionally overrun) by friends and family, you'll find our daughters behind the bar and our small staff being corralled into the fam.

<http://www.horseanddragonbrewing.com/>

Fort Collins Municipal Railway

WELCOME! Join us for a ride on Birney Car 21 on summer weekend afternoons and holidays. Each 3-mile round trip between City Park and Howes Street (downtown) along Mountain Ave. takes about 1/2 hour. We are the Fort Collins Municipal Railway Society (FCMRS), an all-volunteer organization working with the city of Fort Collins to provide a heritage streetcar experience.

<http://www.fortcollinstrolley.org/>

Magic Bus Tours

Sightseeing Tours, Beer Tastings & Tours, Food & Drink, Tours, More

<http://www.themagicbustours.com/>

The Farm at Lee Martinez Park

The Farm at Lee Martinez Park has provided hands-on family fun since 1985. The Farm serves as an educational and interactive experience for Fort Collins residents and visitors.

<http://www.fcgov.com/recreation/thefarm.php>

Somewhere Secret Escape Game

Somewhere Secret is Fort Collins' greatest mystery. A real place filled with relics, puzzles, intrigue, and magic. It is a puzzle room game that anyone can play. When you enter the room and begin to explore, many things are not as they seem, but luckily you won't be alone. Somewhere Secret is best played with a few clever teammates - whether it's with friends, family, strangers or even a first date - the more brainpower the better.

<http://somerwheresecret.com/>

Jessup Farm Barrel House

Founded on having fun and letting our creativity explore the myriad of possibilities blending beer has to offer. Our goal is to take the robust characteristics from the barrels, and blend to bring out the complexities and nuances of the flavors. The Barrel House has a 16-tap selection of various blends. Beer is served in pints, flights and growlers.

<http://www.jessupfarmbarrelhouse.com/>