GOLD LEAF AWARD APPLICATION

The Gold Leaf Award provides an opportunity for the Rocky Mountain Chapter to acknowledge worthy individuals and recognize organizations or municipalities for projects that have had a significant impact upon a community or region, usually over a period of several years. The award is intended for individuals, organizations, municipalities, and communities that have devoted themselves to the promotion of Arbor Day projects and observances.

The Gold Leaf Award consists of two categories, to include Community Landscape Beautification and Arbor Day Activities. The Community Landscape Beautification Award is awarded to individuals, organizations, or municipalities that have made significant contributions in the fields of environmental protection, conservation, beautification, or other landscape activities, which have had a positive impact in promoting tree care and preservation. The Arbor Day Activity Award is awarded to individuals, organizations, or municipalities that have orchestrated, hosted or promoted an Arbor Day event that has drawn the support of the community to promote the education and support of the care and preservation of arboriculture.

Please select the Category you are submitting an application for:

- Outstanding Arbor Day Activities
